REWARD

The United States Department of State's Transnational Organized Crime Rewards Program is offering a reward of up to $15 million for information leading to the arrest and/or conviction of Giovanni Vicente Mosquera Serrano.

CAUTION

Giovanni Vicente Mosquera Serrano is an alleged senior leader of the Tren de Aragua transnational gang, a designated foreign terrorist organization which originated in Venezuela and now operates throughout Latin America and the United States. Tren de Aragua is allegedly responsible for sending gang members to the United States who engage in drug trafficking, human trafficking, weapons trafficking, and violent crime.

A federal arrest warrant was issued for Mosquera Serrano in the United States District Court, Southern District of Texas, after he was charged with conspiring to provide and providing material support to a foreign terrorist organization, as well as conspiracy and distribution of cocaine in Colombia intended for distribution in the United States. This case is being investigated as part of Joint Task Force Vulcan.
